Program Services

Achievement	Pgm. Svc. Exp.
Animal Adoption: In 2006 the Cat Adoption Team rescued, rehabilitated and placed 2,846 cats and kittens. CAT supports the community and partners with local county shelters, humane organizations and veterinary clinics to take in cats that might otherwise be euthanized due to medical problems, age or space constraints. CAT's on-site veterinary hospital is the only on-site full service shelter hospital in the area. CAT accepts and treats strays and abandoned cats and kittens throughout the state of Oregon. CAT has the capacity to care for 250-300 cats at the shelter and places approximately 250 more into temporary foster homes to socialize them and prepare them for adoption. Since its opening in May of 1998, the organization has placed over 13,000 cats and kittens into new homes, ensuring that all of them are altered before adoption in order to combat overpopulation and unnecessary euthanasia. CAT further focuses on eliminating overpopulation through public education and low-cost spay/neuter services. All felines that are accepted into CAT's shelter are altered, vaccinated, tested for common diseases, treated for parasites, and given microchip identification prior to adoption. CAT's growth in the past four years - from 750 adoptions in 2001 to close to 2,900 in 2006 - attests to the community's need for its services. CAT plans to continue its aggressive outreach and marketing strategy to further expand its rescue, spay/neuter and adoption programs in 2007 to accommodate the community's ever-increasing number of stray and abandoned cats and kittens. CAT is proud to partner and network with other community-based organizations to optimize public education regarding responsible pet ownership and the value of cats in families. In an effort to expand the valuable services CAT provides, the organization is always looking to develop new or expand existing programs designed to encourage increased adoptions, decrease euthanasia and strengthen the human-animal bond while enriching the lives of pets and people in its community. 93 a	The Adoption Program places cats into loving, lifetime homes. Staff and volunteer adoption counselors are trained to match cats with adopters. They advise on the proper introduction of a cat into its new household and nutritional/behavioral considerations to ensure the best possible outcome: a lifelong match. Counselors follow up on each adoption, provide ongoing guidance and advice by phone or e-mail, and encourage responsible cat care by providing educational resources. CAT ensures that every cat/kitten is healthy and receives the best start in its new home. Adoption fees include: Physical Exam, Spay/Neuter, testing for FIV/FelV, FVRCP/Leukemia vaccinations, treatment for parasites, a microchip and registration, food, litter and cat care booklet. In addition to adopting cats directly from the shelter facility, CAT has established adoption outreach programs at four PETS MART retail stores in outlying suburbs, five PetCo stores, and a local Portland pet retail store.
101	CATs charity auction and raffle not only raise funds but increase the visibility of the organization in the community. More people are made aware of CATs services, saving more lives.
93 b	CATs on-site veterinary hospital enables CAT to give immediate and continuing medical care to its shelter cats, newly adopted cats and sick or injured cats from low-income families in the Portland Metro area. Special needs cats are welcomed and every effort is made to treat these cats and place them into appropriate, safe, caring homes. The hospital's goal is to keep newly adopted cats in the family by treating them quickly and cost-effectively in order to avoid returns and educate owners of the importance of lifetime veterinary care. Veterinary care for low-income families is provided on a case by case basis in order to avoid a loving family pet needing to be relinquished to a shelter or euthanized due to a lack of funds. 2,115 spay/neuter surgeries were performed in 2006, reducing feline overpopulation and increasing the chances of shelter cats finding a home.
102	Besides funding part of the organization, the sale of retail items enables CAT to provide new pet owners with the articles they need to take appropriate care of their new family members. It gives adoption counselors the opportunity to talk about pet care, proper nutrition and exercise - educating pet owners on the lifelong commitment and care they will provide for their new companion.
